Hillary's 'Young Life' Profile

Welcome to Hillary's profile. It is written with the intent of giving concerned parties in general, an idea of Hillary's character, talents, needs and wants. This knowledge will help point Hillary in the right direction. This profile requires an accurate birth time. If you do not know the exact time of birth some of the information may not be completely relevant although the overall view will still be valid.

This profile is divided into a number of sections - detailed below - to make it easier to read and understand.

When reading this you will find both the positive and negative qualities of Hillary defined. Most people will be happy to learn about the positive ones, while others may get upset over the negative ones. Contradictions will always appear in a person. They are what give us our uniqueness. We have tried to balance all qualities as much as possible so you get a good overview. Some children have wonderful charts while others have difficult charts and this will manifest in their personality.

The 'profile' as outlined here is not set in concrete and can be changed with your help. If the profile is positive you simply support and direct Hillary. Where the profile indicates difficulties for Hillary, guidance, direction and boundaries will be important.

Suitable for any young person from about sixteen months old and up. That is when she will start manifesting the qualities described. If you are having this profile prepared for a newly born child you will have to wait some time before it begins to make sense and be of value.

The 'Aspects' or individual characteristics are given a Star Rating from one to five to show their relative importance in the Profile. To the right of each pair of 'aspect' symbols is a group of five stars ★☆☆☆☆, the more dark stars there are the more important the connection. The keys for the planets and the other symbols and terms used are given at the back of the report.

Section A - laying down the foundations

1.Essential character - this profiles the general trends and outstanding characteristics of Hillary 's nature, and also makes some comment on the quality of the relationship with the father. However this is not easily defined using Astrology so the section entitled 'Emotional and feeling nature' must be considered carefully together with this opening section.

* Between the first two sections, which deal essentially with father and mother there is a short section on 'The dominant parent'. We do not try to make a definitive judgement here but tradition states that the father is externally dominant and the mother is emotionally, or internally, dominant. Make your own judgement as to which parent fits the bill best.

2.Emotional and feeling nature - this shows how the more passive and sensitive side of Hillary's nature is likely to develop and also comments on the nature of the relationship with her mother.

3.At this point we look more directly at the relationship between Hillary and her mother.

4.Personality - this is a description of Hillary's physical nature; and also her general approach to the world; the way she sees it; and the way she likes to be seen. For instance, does she wear rose-coloured glasses or does she view the world from behind dark glasses?

Section B - the process of development - from toddler to teenager

1.Assertiveness - this describes how Hillary makes her presence felt and if she is essentially active or passive. Does she like to push her way to the front, or stay determinedly in the background?

2.Friendship and social attitudes - this looks at how Hillary will get on with others. For instance, will she be a bit of a loner, have hundreds of friends, or just a few who are useful, and so on.

3.The power of the mind - this describes the approach Hillary is likely to take towards the intellectual and academic side of her life and how she will respond to the rigours of education.

4.Money - this looks at how Hillary will handle the money in her pocket or purse. Spendthrift or miser? Such traits establish themselves early and tend to remain with us all our lives.

Section C - preparing for independence

1.Higher education and establishing values - this section describes how Hillary, approaching complete independence, lays down the belief and educational framework that will sustain her through her adult life.

2.Approach to daily working life - this looks at how Hillary is likely to fare in the harsh world of work. What drive, if any, she has to succeed and how she will deal with the inevitable day-to-day necessities of work.

3.Career and ambitions - this final section examines how Hillary might approach the business of how to make her mark on life, and what areas might be the most productive for her as she grows steadily older.

Section A - laying down the foundations

Essential character

The Sun signifies our inner sense of identity, and our will. It is the single most important planet in our birth chart and generally describes what we are seeking to become through the journey of life, or perhaps our 'destiny'.

Sun in Scorpio

If Hillary is typical of her Scorpio Sun sign, then much of her essential nature will be hidden from view. Shrouding her motives in secrecy, she will reveal little of herself even to her closest family. This is not because she is in any way anti-social, nor that she has anything to hide, but she knows that - if too much about herself is revealed - others may gain the upper hand, or may try to manipulate her in some way. To Hillary, knowledge is power, and she wishes to have the monopoly on power. She must be in control at all times.

There will be nothing shallow or wishy-washy about this child. Be advised there will be a struggle for supremacy even before she is out of the pram - and she'll win it. Her willpower is phenomenal, and she is extremely purposeful. The force of her personality is such that it will either drain you of energy, or regenerate you.

If this is what she is like as a youngster, just imagine what she'll be like when she's older!

In her relationships she will be as intense as everything else in her life. Hillary's emotions run deep, and her fundamental need to control at all times may manifest itself as unreasonable possessiveness, and she can be extremely jealous.

Hillary is a deeply passionate person who can do nothing by half-measures. In love or war it will be all or nothing. She will be unable to live on a superficial level, and will have to subject everything in life to the most thorough investigative scrutiny.

Her memory is long. She will forget neither a kindness nor an injury. She makes a lovingly devoted friend and a bitter, implacable enemy. Hillary has staying power, and will wait if need be, to the end of her lifetime in order to exact revenge. Cross her at your peril!

Hillary will have the ability to inspire fear or awe in others, because of the overwhelming force of her personality. But 'forcefulness' does not mean 'hardness' for, beneath the surface, lies a rich seam of compassion and feelings.

It may be difficult to mine this seam, however, because Hillary will prefer to help those who at least try to help themselves - so strong herself, she despises weakness.

Her formative years will be vital, if she is to use her potent energies positively, rather than for the selfish gratification of her desires. She has strength, an unbreakable will, and the power to precipitate crisis and, through it, the power to bring about deep and fundamental change; to bring about total transformation.

Hillary's wilfulness

Sun in 5th House

The powerful energy of Hillary's Sun position will be translated into 'joie de vivre' of the highest order. Her sense of self is never a problem, it springs directly from her own heart. She will love to be in love, and surrounded by her many admiring friends.

Even if she lives to be 1, she'll always be a child at heart, for she adores being in the spotlight where she can display her natural talents for all to see. She will be so naturally self-confident that there is always the possibility that she might become over-confident and take great risks in her life, a kind of natural-born gambler.

Sun Square Mars

Perhaps Hillary will have to learn the difference between co-operation and competition. Her natural fieriness will lead her to be impulsive, rash and sometimes insensitive in her expression. Hillary will find it difficult to find a productive way of expressing her natural drive and could well oscillate between bursts of extreme energy and times of complete inaction.

She will have a natural lack of patience and needs to learn the fine arts of discipline and control. Channel her energy into sports; adventure and exciting activities with a hint of danger and some of the raw edges of her energy can be knocked off in a productive way.

Sun Trine Uranus

Hillary has a very determined and headstrong nature, which comes through as a desire to be free and independent. Hillary will be bright, intelligent inventive and original. She will always have a very unique way of viewing the world that might lead others to believe she is not completely normal - and they would be completely right! In fact Hillary is not in any way odd it is imply that she thinks in a lateral fashion and sees things others don't. It is important that this particular talent is not discouraged.

The Dominant Parent

In this section we are using traditional astrological rules for defining Hillary's relationship with her father. However this may well be more applicable to Hillary's Mother. Generally one or other of the parents has the strongest influence in developing Hillary's approach to the outside world. Traditionally this has been the father's role but it could perfectly well apply to her Mother, hence the use of the phrase 'The Dominant Parent'.

Pisces in 10th House

Hillary will have a very interesting relationship with her father. On the one hand, it will be very idealistic and cultured, yet possibly full of disappointments at the same time. Hillary's father could well be a 'bit of a dreamer' who finds it difficult to deal with the practicalities of life, which in turn, could set up a pattern of conduct in Hillary's later life.

Emotional and feeling nature

In this section we shall examine how Hillary relates on an emotional level. This is traditionally associated with the maternal relationship but we have not made such an obvious assumption and the following section should not be read as being primarily concerned with the relationship between mother and child.

Astrologically, the Moon describes our responses, sensitivity, our feeling nature, and the unconscious side of our personality. It shows our emotions and these, of course, will be filtered, or coloured, by the sign in which the Moon falls. Most importantly, the Moon shows our needs.

It shows how we will react on an instinctive level.

Moon in Pisces

Hillary needs sympathy, dreams and peace.

Extremely sensitive, she is often at the mercy of her emotions, and will find it difficult to make harsh decisions. A dedicated collector of 'lame dogs', she will be attracted to the flawed and the damaged, finding purpose in restoring them to wholeness again.

With her vivid imagination, she is likely to be musical or artistic in some way. Hillary is immeasurably kind and compassionate, but she may have a tendency to manipulate others in order to have her needs met.

The houses of the chart represent different compartments of life, different areas of experience, and each house will 'colour' the Moon in a slightly different way.

Moon in 9th House

She needs to be able to relate emotionally to a highly principled role model in her life, her mother would be the ideal candidate, and a strongly moral family framework will be essential to her sense of security. Emotionally restless, she may find commitment difficult.

Throughout her life, she may feel that 'the grass is greener on the other side of the fence', and spend many years looking for a philosophy that will satisfy her longings, or spiritual enlightenment of some kind. As she grows up she may decide that a foreign culture gives her the kind of emotional nourishment she needs and she may make her home and raise a family abroad.

Hillary's emotions and feelings

Hillary's relationship with her Mother

It is important to understand that the relationship between mother and child is always 'symbiotic'. In other words the way Hillary's Mother behaves towards her child and the way Hillary perceives her mother is so inextricably linked that it is hard to separate the one from the other. Does Hillary's mother react to Hillary or does Hillary react to her mother? This is perhaps the original chicken and egg question, and in this section we shall try to address this issue.

Moon in Pisces

Hillary could be slightly lost in her own world so her mother may find it difficult establishing a close relationship with her. It is as if she is somehow unavailable to her. This is not malice or coldness but rather shyness, and sensitivity to the feelings of others. She is frightened of hurting her mother's feelings, so may often not tell what she is feeling. Or she can be overly dependent on her mother and unable to leave her side, fretting whenever she goes away. Her mother will need to spend a lot of time with her because of her sensitivity.

To her mother, Hillary might seem a vague and often confused child in a world of her own, while she may well regard her in a similar light. The best way she can relate with her is to share her imagination and interest in fantasy; to get lost with her in the world of imagination where the harsh realities of the world do not impinge. It is vital that this power of imagination be made good use of because there are other methods of fleeing from reality that are considerably more destructive!

Moon in 9th House

The relationship between Hillary and her mother should have a strong element of fun but may have a distant aspect to it in the sense that Hillary looks to her mother to teach her about the world while her mother is probably perfectly happy to play the role. The consequence of this and Hillary's natural curiosity is that together they inadvertently conspire towards an early flying from the nest.

Personality

This section looks at how Hillary views the world and likes to be viewed by others. No matter what Hillary's essential nature may be all of us have a 'face' that we put on for public consumption and this section describes that 'face'.

AS in II

Hillary's ascendant/rising sign is Gemini

Hillary's eyes are always on the move. When she talks, her eyes will be constantly looking around, observing and assimilating information, and she can easily pick up the salient points from two conversations being held at the same time, Gemini is the sign of duality, after all! Not only 'busy' eyes and ears, but busy hands, too: she'll gesticulate as she talks - and she'll talk very rapidly.

Hillary will be a lively, chatty, and extremely friendly child. She will have the happy knack of making friends quickly and easily, and will retain this facility all her life. She will also have the enviable gift of looking far younger than her years!

Quick-witted, intelligent, inventive and extremely inquisitive, she should enjoy her school years. She will be an excellent mimic, and may have a flair for languages.

As an adult, she will be somewhat of a social butterfly. Restless and inconsistent, she will easily be bored, and she may give the impression of superficiality.

Alternative Rising Sign?

Your Ascendant falls near the cusp of the following Sign. So if your birth time is possibly up to an hour or so later than what you have given it as, you could have a Cancer Ascendant.

AS in 69

Hillary's ascendant/rising sign is Cancer

People born with Cancer rising are ruled by the Moon, and Hillary is likely to be a child of many - and fluctuating moods. Emotional security is vital to her well-being, unconditional love in abundance will make her feel safe and secure. The relationship with her mother will be crucial to her development.

She will be easily moved to tears, both as a child and an adult. A sensitive and emotional person like Hillary orients herself to the world through her feelings, and she will be easily influenced by the moods and emotional appeals of others.

Hillary will find it hard - even impossible - to get rid of that which is old or outdated in her life, and so consequently she will be a tremendous collector. Old toys, old school books, old clothes, will all be stockpiled in her bedroom - send them to the jumble sale at your peril!

Later, when she is grown up, old friends, old loves, old hates and old memories will be added to her collection. They are part of her emotional protection, and add to her sense of security.

Hillary will be a loving and sympathetic person, who is good with people. She is likely to be extremely creative, and will have a strong tenacious streak.

Section B

Toddler to teenager the process of development

Assertion

In this section we will be looking at the way in which Hillary finds her way through the rough and tumble of childhood and later life, without being pushed around by others. The methods and approaches she uses to make sure her own needs are met and how she deals with the needs of others when they are at odds with her own.

Mars in 2nd House

Hillary is not too assertive generally but once she has attached herself to somebody she can become possessive. She may have difficulty in expressing anger until it builds up and then explodes. It would be helpful for her to learn it is fine to express her anger so long as she doesn't hurt anybody doing it!

Friends and social groups

In this section we shall be looking at what sort of friends Hillary needs and what she is likely to bring to friendships herself. We shall also look at the way in which she is likely to interact with social groups or whether, for example, she would prefer to be on her own.

Aries in 11th House

Hillary will be quick to make friends but may be just as quick to lose them too. Very competitive by nature, this could lead to tensions with friends. On the other hand, she may simply choose to spend time with people of a similar nature.

More on Hillary's friends and social groups

Uranus in 12th House

Hillary may well be rather secretive about her social life and her friends may not get to meet each other. There is an element of 'divide and rule' in Hillary's nature. She may swing between believing she should dedicate her life to the betterment of society, and regarding society as something to be manipulated for her own benefit. Either way she is unlikely to display a great deal of conventionality in her choice of social life.

The power of the mind

In this section we indicate Hillary's communication and learning skills, her needs at school and requirements for her further education. Of particular interest to her parents will be how to talk and connect with her.

Leo in 3rd House

Hillary is an individual with a bright, imaginative and creative mind. She loves to be the focus of attention, and to be applauded for all she says and does. She is proud of her opinions and beliefs, and does not like to have them challenged for she interprets challenge as personal criticism. Her conviction that she is always right may give rise to a tendency to arrogance. Hillary loves to dispense advice and pearls of wisdom, and likes to be thought of as the 'Oracle'. However, this latter trait may earn her the reputation of a show-off and a 'know it all'!

More about Hillary's mental approaches

Mercury in Scorpio

Extremely intuitive, remarkably perceptive, Hillary is also obsessively secretive about her innermost thoughts, and so you may never fully fathom this child's mind. Still waters run deep, they say, and Hillary prefers to keep silent about what goes on in her head.

Her mentality is complex. She can rarely be swayed by sugary sentiment, but she responds to strong emotions. She can be sharp, even cruel in her speech, and some of her ideas may be considered harsh, yet there is a deep vein of compassion within her.

Her mental energy is immense. She has great determination and resourcefulness, and can overcome the most enormous obstacles with nothing more than the force of her willpower.

At school, her fundamental need for control may lead to power struggles with her teachers and, if thwarted, she may be manipulative and even subversive. She can also be alarmingly obstinate. She takes pleasure from knowing that others can be intimidated by her intellect, and she enjoys playing mind games.

There's nothing wishy-washy about her communicative abilities. Never superficial, but passionate and intense, Hillary can even manage to say 'good morning' in a meaningful way!

Mercury in 5th House

Hillary's creativity may be expressed through the medium of the spoken and written word, and so she could have a flair for writing. Drama may be a particular interest - particularly so because it provides Hillary with the spotlight she enjoys performing under! She is bright and lively, with a fertile, active brain, and she will respond well to others whose wit and mental agility match her own.

Her preferred way of relaxing, is likely to be in playing games of skill and strategy, such as chess.

Hillary's communication skills are modified in the following way

Earning and spending money

In this section we shall look at how Hillary is likely to develop in terms of her attitude towards the acquisition and expenditure of money.

Cancer in 2nd House

Money is a source of emotional security to Hillary: the more she can salt away, the safer she feels. Her income may be generated from property, farming, or working with children in some way, and it is likely to be spent almost exclusively on her family!

Mars in 2nd House

The normal ways of earning money as an employee may be too slow for Hillary's liking, and so she might prefer to be self-employed, or to start up a business of her own. As well as entrepreneurial skills she can boast executive action, assertiveness, desire for money and, above all, energy, so she is likely to be a force to be reckoned with! The process of money making excites and motivates her.

Saturn in 2nd House

This astrological placement confers a sensible fear of poverty and, because of this, Hillary is likely to take a frugal and prudent approach to finances, and value the protective security of money in the bank.

She may have to sweat for her money. Material success is likely to come only as the result of a great deal of hard work, and later in life than Hillary might wish it to be! But her patience, realism, stamina and level headed caution will combine well with ambition to ensure her eventual success.

Pluto in 2nd House

Hillary will display a compulsive drive to acquire wealth and, more importantly, the power it brings. She will display great resourcefulness in achieving this. Perceptive about financial opportunities and possibilities, she will always be aware of undercurrents and is able to act on them.

More information concerning Hillary's attitude towards finances

Venus in Scorpio

Hillary is very aware of the power of money, and knows how to use it to her advantage. She will rarely - if ever - have occasion to throw herself on the mercy of her bank manager for an overdraft, for she will invariably have a secret fund of money held in reserve. Preferring to deal with other people's money rather than her own, she could be attracted to the profession of a stockbroker, investment consultant or banker.

Venus in 5th House

Hillary will certainly get serious enjoyment from the process of acquiring money and will no doubt display any wealth she does accumulate in a very grandiose and often dramatic fashion.

Section C - preparing for independence

Higher education and establishing values

In this section we shall examine how Hillary is likely to find her place in society, as she grows older. What standards she will set for herself and what she values. This will probably not become clear until Hillary has reached at least the puberty stage.

Aquarius in 9th House

Hillary has her own unique, advanced and possibly unorthodox ideas about further education. She may be all for it or she may rebel against it totally. She needs the freedom to choose the subjects she studies and may well display a strong interest in science, psychology, mathematics and new technology.

More about Hillary's philosophy and further education

Jupiter in Sagittarius

Even if Hillary never experiences formal higher education, she will be a perpetual student at the 'University of Life'. Her philosophy will be formed from many diverse and wildly differing cultural strands. From various creeds, ideologies and ethics - it's no sin to be eclectic, in Hillary's eyes - she will codify the principles by which she lives.

During her lifetime, Hillary is likely to travel a great deal. This may be either in physical terms, in which case she may spend time overseas, or in metaphysical terms. If the latter, she will be involved in a life-long quest for truth, understanding, and knowledge.

Hillary's education

Jupiter in 6th House

Hillary can make even the most mundane task significant. If a job's worth doing, it's worth doing well, to her way of thinking. If she decides to go into further education when older she will work with great conscientiousness and may do very well for herself.

This section is especially concerned with Hillary's inner values

Approach to daily working life

This section will look at how Hillary may approach the thorny problem of working for a living. Naturally this will not begin to show until her teenage years, but as with everything else, forewarned is forearmed and there will always be ways to produce the most positive outcome!

Scorpio in 6th House

Work that deals with other people's finances and resources, such as insurance, investments and banking, would be suitable for Hillary. Or she may be drawn to employment concerned with the workings of human relationships.

Jupiter in 6th House

Hillary is a natural teacher in the working environment. She will have the patience to explain the detail involved in a job, and will enjoy inspiring others in their work. For instance, if she has sporting ability, a great deal of satisfaction could be obtained from coaching.

Involvement in the travel industry will be the ideal employment, or she may enjoy working in publishing.

More about Hillary's likely approach to working life

Mercury in Scorpio

Hillary could use her innate knowledge of psychology, and her deep perception, to good effect in her employment and she would be well suited to an advisory position. She would also enjoy the role of 'trouble-shooter' in some field, for there is no one better at crisis management than Hillary. She has a talent for handling other people's money and financial affairs. She might also be drawn to forensic science.

Mercury in 5th House

Creative writing could be a possible outlet for Hillary's energies when it comes to choosing a line of work. She would also be good at public relations, at working in the sports and entertainment industries, and she might do well as a teacher of infants and young children.

Career and ambitions

In this section we shall look at how Hillary might approach the outside world in terms of possible careers and potential ambitions as she grows to maturity. Naturally these traits are unlikely to show until Hillary is at least in her teens.

More about Hillary's possible career approaches

Saturn in Leo

Hillary will want to be seen as special, as something of a star. While this may manifest itself as attention seeking, or flamboyant conduct, when she is a child, she will be at pains as an adult to establish not only her status and authority but - and perhaps this is more important - her uniqueness as an individual.

Her over-riding fear is to be thought 'ordinary' and for her creativity to be unappreciated or - what is, to her, far worse - ignored.

Parental criticism, or discouragement, will wound her pride and self-esteem, driving her hurt inwards and stifling her talent. In that case it may not be until later in life that she finds the self-confidence to pursue her creative bent or professional goals once again.

ぢ

Saturn in 2nd House

With her level headed and cautious approach, Hillary could do extremely well in the financial world, to her, handling large amounts of money is the next best thing to owning it herself! or she may be drawn to a career in real estate. Whether it's money, property development, or working on the land, it's all a form of 'investment', and this is what will interest Hillary most: getting a return of some kind.
